

Beverley and her husband, Philippe Vandatte, moved to Wilmington Dec. 2011 from San Diego, CA and discovered CMW a few months later. Beverley retired as Director of Employment from the San Diego Community College District and served on the boards of LEAD, San Diego; Society of Human Resource Management; St. James Episcopal Church, La Jolla; and on committees of the Museum of Contemporary Art, La Jolla; the Museum of Art, Balboa Park; and OLLI Adult Scholars program at UNCW. She completed the last year of her bachelor's degree at the Florence, Italy campus of California State University and holds a Master's of Education. She is a lover of a wide range of music and appreciates the variety and level of classical and jazz that's so available in Wilmington.
